RE: South Dakota #13-0014-MM

Dear Ms. Malsam-Rysdon:

We have reviewed the proposed State Plan Amendment (SPA) submitted under transmittal number (TN) 13-0014-MM. This SPA implements the Affordable Care Act's provision to establish the Modified Adjusted Gross Income (MAGI) Methodologies that will be used for determining eligibility for most children, pregnant women, parents and caretaker relatives and adults described in 42 CFR 435.119.

Please be informed that this State Plan Amendment was approved on November 18, 2013 with an effective date of January 1, 2014. We are enclosing the summary sheet (CMS-179) and the amended plan page(s).

If you have any questions concerning this amendment, please contact Laurie Jensen at (303) 844-7126.

Sincerely.

/s/

Richard C. Allen Associate Regional Administrator Division for Medicaid & Children's Health Operations

MAGI-Based Income Methodologies S	510
1902(e)(14) 42 CFR 435.603
The state will apply Modified Adjusted Gross Income (MAGI)-based methodologies as described below, and consistent with 42 CFR 435.603.
In the case of determining ongoing eligibility for beneficiaries determined eligible for Medicaid on or before December 31, 2013, MAGI-based income methodologies will not be applied until March 31, 2014, or the next regularly-scheduled renewal of eligibility, whichever is later, if application of such methods results in a determination of ineligibility prior to such date.
In determining family size for the eligibility determination of a pregnant woman, she is counted as herself plus each of the children she is expected to deliver.
In determining family size for the eligibility determination of the other individuals in a household that includes a pregnant woman:
The pregnant woman is counted just as herself.
C The pregnant woman is counted as herself, plus one.
• The pregnant woman is counted as herself, plus the number of children she is expected to deliver.
Financial eligibility is determined consistent with the following provisions:
When determining eligibility for new applicants, financial eligibility is based on current monthly income and family size.
When determining eligibility for current beneficiaries, financial eligibility is based on:
 Current monthly household income and family size
OProjected annual household income and family size for the remaining months of the current calendar year
In determining current monthly or projected annual household income, the state will use reasonable methods to:
☐ Include a prorated portion of a reasonably predictable increase in future income and/or family size.
Account for a reasonably predictable decrease in future income and/or family size.
Except as provided at 42 CFR 435.603(d)(2) through (d)(4), household income is the sum of the MAGI-based income of every individual included in the individual's household.
In determining eligibility for Medicaid, an amount equivalent to 5 percentage points of the FPL for the applicable family size will be deducted from household income in accordance with 42 CFR 435.603(d).
Household income includes actually available cash support, exceeding nominal amounts, provided by the person claiming an individual described at §435.603(f)(2)(i) as a tax dependent.
