Census Bureau wages are disregarded.

Description of disregard: All wages paid by the Census Bureau for temporary employment related to the decennial Census are excluded.

A specified type of income is disregarded:

Name of income type:	Description:
Tribal Gaming Per Capita Payments	The first five hundred dollars of tribal per capita payments from tribally managed gaming revenues are excluded in determining eligibility. These payments are distributed from local tribal funds from gaming operations and have not been held in trust by the Secretary of Interior. These payments are not otherwise excluded under federal law (e.g., P.L. 98-64).
In-kind support and maintenance	In-kind support and maintenance is totally exempt unless regular, predictable and received in return for a service or product delivered.
Combat Zone Additional Pay	Any additional payment received under chapter 5 of title 37, United States Code, by a member of the United States Armed forces deployed to a designated combat zone shall be excluded from household income for the duration of the member's deployment if the additional pay is the result of deployment to or while serving in a combat zone, and it was not received immediately

Name of income type:	Description:
	prior to serving in the combat zone.
Court-ordered Support and Payments	Court-ordered support amounts (child or spousal support) and court-ordered attorney and/or guardian fees are considered unavailable.
Amounts Deemed to Children	Deeming to other eligible children an ineligible parent's income in excess of that which makes one child ineligible. Deemed parental income is equally split among siblings and no further computations are done.

Specific income changes are disregarded between redeterminations.

Specified income changes are disregarded:

Name of disregard:	Description:
Disregard of income increases after spenddown is met	Income increases which occur after a spenddown is met are disregarded for the remainder of the spenddown budget period.

c. Less restrictive methodologies are used in calculating countable resources.

Yes No

The less restrictive resource methodologies are:

General resource disregard:

Name of disregard:	Description:
Irrevocable burial trust interest.	Interest from irrevocable burial trusts is counted as an

Name of disregard:	Description:
	asset unless it has been specifically declared irrevocable in writing.
Availability of assets.	Assets are not considered available unless they will be available in cash within 30 days (e.g., cash value of life insurance); value is suspended until asset becomes available.
Exclusion of real property	Nonexempt real property is considered unavailable when the property owner lists it for sale with a realtor at its fair market value or a joint owner who is outside the fiscal test group refuses to sell the property.
First moment of the month rule for counting of resources.	For an applicant - A person can become eligible any time during the month when assets are at or below limit. For a recipient - A person can maintain eligibility during the month even if resources exceed limits if the excess is used to discharge legal debts within the month or is converted to exempt resources.

The state uses a less restrictive methodology with respect to resources set aside for burial.

Specified methodology for the treatment of resources set aside for burial:

Name of methodology:	Description:
Exemption of Certain Burial Trusts	For burial agreements funded by trusts, which Wisconsin state law permits only $3,000 of the funds within which to be irrevocable, $1,500 of funds in excess of the limit, which would otherwise be deemed revocable by operation of the irrevocable limit imposed by state law and thereby a countable resource under SSI policy, shall be disregarded.

A beneficiary of a "qualified state long-term care insurance partnership" policy (partnership policy), as defined in section 1917(b)(1)(C) of the Social Security Act and 45 CFR 144.200 et seq., is provided a resource disregard, equal to the amount of the insurance benefit payments made to or on behalf of the individual from the partnership policy.
