Medicaid Managed Care Enrollment and Program Characteristics: 2024

Summary

This report provides summaries of the number of enrollees in Medicaid managed care programs at the national and state levels as of July 1, 2024. The Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) collected the data and information presented in this report in late 2024 and early 2025 from all states and territories authorized to provide Medicaid managed care benefits and services.

National tables provide summary data on Medicaid managed care enrollment at the state, program, and managed care plan levels, as well as program features, including type of enrollment (mandatory or voluntary) by population group, quality assurance requirements, and use of performance incentives by managed care program type. For purposes of this report, the term “managed care plan” refers to the following entities as defined under 42 CFR 438.2 — Managed Care Organizations (MCOs), Prepaid Inpatient Health Plans (PIHPs), Prepaid Ambulatory Health Plans (PAHPs), Primary Care Case Managers (PCCMs), and Primary Care Case Management Entities (PCCM Entities).

A separate set of state tables, found in an accompanying report, summarize the characteristics of each managed care program including program type, geographic reach, federal operating authority, program start and end dates, enrollee populations, services covered, quality assurance and improvement provisions, and the names of participating plans or providers.

Data Limitations

CMS conducted data validation and quality assurance activities on the enrollment data and program features provided by states. While CMS made efforts to resolve apparent errors, users of this report should be aware of the following limitations:

- States may differ in how they describe similar types of managed care programs. For example, some states list all benefits provided through a Fee-for-Service (FFS) delivery system and coordinated by primary care case managers in their PCCMs, while other states list only case management as the covered service (considering the remaining services covered by the FFS delivery system).
- Some states can provide a total unduplicated count of enrollees in any type of managed care but cannot provide unduplicated counts of enrollees in a specific managed care program type or plan when individuals can be enrolled in more than one program or plan concurrently. This results in potential differences in how state data is reported, depending on how a specific program type is defined for each data table in the report. For example, a state might consider multiple programs to be comprehensive managed care and allow enrollment in more than one program. Because of this, the state may be able to report unduplicated comprehensive managed care as defined in Table 1, but unable to report unduplicated comprehensive managed care separately from PACE in Table 2.
- Some states chose to suppress data, meaning that the report displays a plan or program with very small enrollment numbers (e.g., fewer than 10 or fewer than 30, depending on the state) as 0. States suppress this data to protect enrollees’ privacy and mitigate the risk of personal identification.
- In some cases, states reported program or plan names that differ from those used in publicly available sources, including the 2023 edition of this report. For example, states may vary from year to year and source to source in how they refer to their PACE program, sometimes calling it “PACE,” “Program of All-Inclusive Care for the Elderly,” or “Program for Seniors.” Although these program names represent the same program, the naming convention varies, and CMS reported the program names as submitted by the state.

- This report relies on state-reported data. CMS conducted outreach to states to clarify data quality concerns in their enrollment data submissions. The data in this report is reflective of all state data received as of May 31, 2025.¹
- CMS is unable to follow up and validate every data point reported by states. As part of our approved validation process, we followed up with every state that had more than a 10% change in the following data points:
 - Total Medicaid Enrollees,
 - Total Medicaid Enrollment in Any Type of Managed Care,
 - Medicaid Enrollment in Comprehensive Managed Care,
 - Total number of MLTSS users (the sum of “Comprehensive Managed Care Including LTSS: Number of Enrollees Using LTSS” and “MLTSS Only: Number of Enrollees Using LTSS”), and
 - Total Dually Eligible Individuals.
- States reviewed and validated their data, and either provided a correction or confirmed that large differences (i.e., more than a 10% change from 2023 to 2024), were accurate. Many states indicated these changes were a result of the Public Health Emergency (PHE) and/or unwinding efforts.

Questions regarding state- or territory-specific information in this report should be directed to the corresponding state or territory Medicaid official. Contact information is available on each state Medicaid agency’s website at this link: <http://medicaiddirectors.org/about/medicaid-directors/>.

Report Highlights

In 2024, approximately 87 million Americans were enrolled in Medicaid with over 73 million enrollees, or 84.8%, receiving some or all their care through a Medicaid managed care plan. Medicaid managed care enrollment data and program characteristics as of July 1, 2024, show the following trends:

- Total Medicaid managed care enrollment across all types of managed care plans, including in comprehensive MCOs,² decreased from 2023 to 2024. The decrease likely reflects the continued effects of the “unwinding” process, which began after the conclusion of Medicaid’s continuous enrollment condition on March 31, 2023.
 - Total Medicaid managed care enrollment across all types of managed care plans, including MCOs, PAHPs, PIHPs, PCCMs, and PCCM Entities, decreased by 13.4% from 2023 and 2024, comparable to the decrease in overall Medicaid enrollment (12.9%).
 - Medicaid enrollment in comprehensive MCOs, inclusive of PACE, decreased by 11.1%, from 76.4 million in 2023 to 67.9 million in 2024.³
- Enrollment of people dually eligible for Medicare and Medicaid (referred to hereafter as dually eligible individuals) in comprehensive MCOs decreased in 2024 by 3.5%, from 4.5 million in 2023 to 4.3 million in 2024. The number of dually eligible individuals enrolled in comprehensive MCOs as a percent of total dually eligible individuals increased slightly from 38.6% in 2023 to 39.8% in 2024.⁴
- Enrollment in PCCMs, Behavioral Health Organizations (BHO), Dental programs, and Non-Emergency Medical Transportation (NEMT) programs as a percent of total Medicaid enrollees decreased slightly in 2024.
 - Enrollment in PCCMs decreased from 2.1% of total Medicaid enrollees in 2023 to 1.1% in 2024.
 - Enrollment in BHOs was 7.7% of total Medicaid enrollees in 2024, down slightly from 8.5% in 2023.
 - Enrollment in Dental programs was 14.9% of total Medicaid enrollees in 2024 compared to 15.1% in 2023.
 - Enrollment in NEMT programs decreased from 12.9% of total Medicaid enrollees in 2023 to 12.2% in 2024.
- Enrollment in Managed Long-Term Services and Supports (MLTSS) programs grew in 2024. As of July 1, 2024, there were approximately 1.9 million reported MLTSS users nationwide, which is slightly higher than the 1.8 million reported MLTSS users in 2023, a 3.5% enrollment increase.⁵
- The percentage of low-income childless adults eligible for Medicaid through the Affordable Care Act (ACA) Medicaid expansion and enrolled in managed care decreased in 2024. About 21.0 million such adults were enrolled in comprehensive MCOs in 2024 as compared to 24.3 million in 2023, representing a 13.6% decrease.

² Includes comprehensive MCOs, both with and without MLTSS, and PACE program enrollees.

Federal Authorities: Waivers and State Plan Amendments

Federal Authority	Description of Authority
1115(a)	States can apply for a Section 1115 demonstration to test experimental, pilot, or demonstration projects that promote the objectives of Medicaid and the Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP).
1902(a)(70)	States can use Section 1902(a)(70) statutory authority to amend their Medicaid state plan to establish NEMT brokerage programs without regard to statutory requirements for comparability, geographic region served, and freedom of choice.
1905(t)	States can use Section 1905(t) statutory authority to create voluntary primary care case management managed care programs.
1915(a)	States can use Section 1915(a) statutory authority to enter a voluntary contract with an entity to provide state plan services. Enrollment is voluntary.
1915(b)	States can use Section 1915(b) waivers to mandate enrollment of special populations into managed care delivery systems or otherwise limit enrollees' choice of providers.
1915(c)	States can use Section 1915(c) waivers to provide long-term services and supports (LTSS) in home and community settings rather than institutional settings. By using 1915(c) waivers concurrently with 1915(a), 1932(a), or 1915(b) authorities, states can provide LTSS through a managed care delivery system. Without a concurrent waiver that authorizes a state to deliver these services through managed care, 1915(c) waiver services are delivered through a FFS delivery system.
1915(i)	States can use Section 1915(i) statutory authority to offer a variety of home and community-based services (HCBS) through the state plan, regardless of whether enrollees meet the institutional level of care. By using 1915(i) authority concurrently with 1915(a), 1932(a), or 1915(b) authorities, states can provide LTSS through a managed care delivery system. Without a concurrent waiver that authorizes a state to deliver these services through managed care, 1915(i) services are delivered through a FFS delivery system.
1915(j)	States can use Section 1915(j) statutory authority to offer self-directed personal assistance services provided under the state plan and/or section 1915(c) waivers. By using 1915(j) authority concurrently with 1915(a), 1932(a), or 1915(b) authorities, states can provide LTSS through a managed care delivery system. Without a concurrent waiver that authorizes a state to deliver these services through managed care, 1915(j) services are delivered through a FFS delivery system.
1915(k)	States can use Section 1915(k) statutory authority to provide home and community-based attendant services and supports (the "Community First Choice Option") under their state plan. By using 1915(k) authority concurrently with 1915(a), 1932(a), or 1915(b) authorities, states can provide LTSS through a managed care delivery system. Without a concurrent waiver that authorizes a state to deliver these services through managed care, 1915(k) services are delivered through a FFS delivery system.

Federal Authority	Description of Authority
1932(a)	States can use Section 1932(a) statutory authority to mandate enrollment of Medicaid enrollees in managed care plans without section 1915(b) or 1115 waiver authority. However, certain groups are exempt from mandatory enrollment (i.e., dually eligible individuals, American Indians/Alaska Natives, and children with special health care needs). Additionally, with exceptions for rural areas, the state must offer at least two managed care options.
1937	States can use Section 1937 statutory authority to provide alternative benefits tailored to meet the needs of certain Medicaid population groups, target residents in certain areas of the state, or provide services through specific delivery systems instead of following the traditional Medicaid benefit plan. The ACA amended Section 1937 by requiring states to provide an alternative benefit package to the newly eligible adult (Section VIII) Medicaid expansion population, which must cover the 10 essential health benefits described in ACA Section 1302(b).
1945 and 1945A	States can use Section 1945 statutory authority to establish Health Homes for purposes of coordinating care for Medicaid enrollees who have chronic conditions and Section 1945A statutory authority to support a family-centered system of care for children with medically complex conditions. Although Medicaid Health Homes are not a managed care delivery system, states can combine these authorities with a managed care authority such as 1915(a), 1932(a), or 1915(b) to provide health home services through managed care plans.

Ten states (California, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, New Jersey, Nevada, Ohio, Oregon, Virginia, Washington) reported data for "Medicaid Enrollment in Comprehensive Managed Care" that was greater than "Total Medicaid Enrollment in Any Type of Managed Care" but did not provide an explanation for why the number was greater.

Alaska, American Samoa, Connecticut, Guam, Northern Mariana Islands, and the U.S. Virgin Islands do not operate Medicaid managed care programs. For these states and territories, the "Total Medicaid Enrollees" reported in this table is total Medicaid enrollment as of June 1, 2024, from the Medicaid Budget and Expenditure System, accessed on April 23, 2025. Notes: "--" indicates the state or territory does not operate a specific program type or does not have a managed care program. "*" indicates the state operated a program of this type in 2024 but was unable to provide an unduplicated count of enrollees for at least one of their managed care programs.

Alaska, American Samoa, Connecticut, Guam, Northern Mariana Islands, and the U.S. Virgin Islands do not operate Medicaid managed care programs. For these states and territories, the "Total Medicaid Enrollees" reported in this table is total Medicaid enrollment as of June 1, 2024, from the Medicaid Budget and Expenditure System, accessed on April 23, 2025. See <https://data.medicaid.gov/dataset/6c114b2c-cb83-559b-832f-4d8b06d6c1b9/>.

Because Medicaid enrollees may be concurrently enrolled in more than one type of managed care program (e.g., a Comprehensive MCO and a BHO), users should not sum enrollment across all program types, since the total would count individuals more than once and, in some states, exceed the actual number of Medicaid enrollees.

Notes: “--” indicates the state or territory does not operate a specific program type or does not have a managed care program; this value could not be collected for FFS states and territories. “0” indicates that a state operated a program of this type in 2024 but reported 0 dually eligible individuals enrolled as of July 1, 2024. “*” indicates the state operated a program of this type in 2024 but was unable to provide an unduplicated count of enrollees for at least one of their managed care programs.

Because dually eligible individuals may be concurrently enrolled in more than one type of managed care program (e.g., a comprehensive MCO and a BHO), users should not sum enrollment across all program types, since the total would count individuals more than once and, in some states, exceed the actual number of Medicaid enrollees.

Notes: "--" indicates the state or territory does not operate a specific program type or does not have a managed care program.

Ten states (California, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, New Jersey, Nevada, Ohio, Oregon, Virginia, Washington) reported data for "Medicaid Enrollment in Comprehensive Managed Care" that was greater than "Total Medicaid Enrollment in Any Type of Managed Care" but did not provide an explanation for why the number was greater.

Alaska, American Samoa, Connecticut, Guam, Northern Mariana Islands, and the U.S. Virgin Islands do not operate Medicaid managed care programs. For these states and territories, the "Total Medicaid Enrollees" reported in this table is total Medicaid enrollment as of June 1, 2024, from the Medicaid Budget and Expenditure System, accessed on April 23, 2025. See <https://data.medicaid.gov/dataset/6c114b2c-cb83-559b-832f-4d8b06d6c1b9/>.

Map of State Comprehensive Managed Care Penetration as of July 1, 2024

Note: Comprehensive managed care includes risk-based MCOs and PACE.

Notes: "--" indicates the state or territory does not operate a specific program type. "0" indicates that a state operated a program of this type in 2024, but had no enrollment to report as of July 1, 2024, or reported 0 LTSS enrollees within their Comprehensive Managed Care program.

Enrollment and user counts include both Medicaid-only and dually eligible individuals. For both types of enrollees, Medicaid covers LTSS. For dually eligible individuals, Medicaid may also cover Medicare cost-sharing for acute, primary care, and specialty services covered by Medicare and other non-LTSS services that are not covered by Medicare.

Map of State Counts of Users of MLTSS as of July 1, 2024

Note: This map represents the number of MLTSS users, not enrollees (which could include non-users of LTSS, most of whom are dually eligible individuals). Six states (Iowa, Massachusetts, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Wisconsin) were not able to report MLTSS users and instead reported MLTSS enrollment counts. Therefore, the category assigned to these six states on the map may not be accurate.
