February 9, 2021

Susan Birch, Director MaryAnne Lindeblad, Medicaid Director Health Care Authority PO Box 45502 Olympia, WA 98504-5010

Dear Ms. Birch and Ms. Lindeblad:

We are issuing this letter as a companion to the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services' (CMS) approval of Washington's State Plan Amendment (SPA) WA 20-0030. Washington's SPA 20-0030 proposed a resource disregard of earnings accumulated in a separate account during an individual's enrollment in a working disability eligibility group when determining the individual's subsequent eligibility for other eligibility groups covered under Washington's state plan. During the course of our review of SPA 20-0030, we found an issue with an income disregard, which is the subject of this letter.

Washington's existing state plan includes an income disregard ("Community Income Disregard") on Supplement 8a to Attachment 2.6-A, Page 1 (hereafter "page 1"). Under this disregard, community income received in the name of a non-applicant or ineligible spouse living in a separate residence that exceeds the community income received in the name of the applicant/recipient spouse is considered unavailable to the applicant/recipient to the extent of the interest owned by the non-applicant/ineligible spouse. This income disregard is described on page 1 as applying to specific eligibility groups, including the one described at section 1902(a)(10)(A)(ii)(V) of the Social Security Act ("the Act").

The income standard for this eligibility group ("the Special Income Level group," or "SIL" group) is capped at 300 percent of the supplemental security income (SSI) federal benefit rate ("FBR"), and individuals eligible in this group may not have gross income exceeding this limit, as set forth in section 1903(f)(4)(C) of the Act and 42 C.F.R. §435.10. This means that income disregards authorized by section 1902(r)(2) of the Act are not available to individuals who seek eligibility in this group when a state uses 300 percent of the SSI FBR as its income standard, as the application of disregards could result in individuals becoming eligible in the group whose income exceeds the statutory limit. Washington uses an income standard of 300 percent of the SSI FBR as its income standard for the SIL group, which means that its "Community Income Disregard" may not be applied in determining eligibility for this group.

Although the application of this income disregard to the SIL group is not permissible, removal of the disregard from Washington's state plan may render it ineligible for the increased federal medical assistance percentage (FMAP) authorized under Section 6008(a) of the Families First Coronavirus Response Act (FFCRA). Under section 6008(b)(1) of the FFCRA, eligibility for this enhanced FMAP is contingent on, among other things, a state maintaining eligibility standards, methodologies, or procedures that are no more restrictive than what the state had in place as of January 1, 2020. A state that elects to claim enhanced FMAP under section 6008(a) of the FFCRA must comply with section 6008(b)(1) until the first day of the month following the calendar quarter in which the COVID-19 Public Health Emergency (PHE) ends.

CMS discussed this issue with the state during a call on September 17, 2020, and in subsequent correspondence. This letter documents that the state agrees it will submit an additional SPA to correct this issue as soon as practicable after the end of the COVID-19 PHE. Such a SPA will be submitted through the MACPro system and include the reviewable unit (RU) for "Individuals in Institutions Eligible under a Special Income Level."

CMS welcomes the opportunity to work with you and your staff to resolve these issues. Should you or your staff have any questions regarding this request, please contact Nikki Lemmon at Nicole.Lemmon@cms.hhs.gov or (303) 844-2641.

Sincerely,

James G. Scott, Director Division of Program Operations

Enclosure

C. Financial Responsibility of Relatives

1. In determining financial eligibility for an individual, the state does not include income and resources from anyone other than the individual's spouse, and for individuals under age 21 or who have blindness or disability, the individual's parent.

a.The state includes the income and resources of a spouse or parent only when they are living with the individual in the same household, except as follows:

i. In the case of spouses who are age 65 or older or who have blindness or disability and who share the same room in a Medicaid institution, the state:

> 1) Considers these couples either as living together or as living separately for the purpose of counting income and resources, whichever is more advantageous to the couple.

(2) Considers these couples as living separately for the purpose of counting income and resources.

 Where applicable, the state determines income and resource eligibility consistent with the spousal impoverishment rules of section 1924 of the Act, as described in the Resource Assessment and Eligibility reviewable unit.

b. In the case of individuals under age 21 for whom AFDC is the most closely related cash assistance program, the income and resources of parents and spouses are included only if the individual would have been considered a dependent under the state's approved AFDC state plan in effect as of July 16, 1996.
