^a For some measures, the measurement period for the numerator, denominator, or continuous enrollment period varies depending on a specified date for each enrollee (such as enrollee birthdates, prescription or treatment start dates, and discharge dates). For these measures, two ranges are shown. The first date range identifies the full range of possible dates that states will need to use to calculate the measure for all measure-eligible enrollees. The text in parentheses describes the measurement period that should be used for each eligible enrollee.

^b When reporting each measure to CMS, states should indicate whether they defined the measurement period according to Core Set specifications. For many measures, this date range corresponds to calendar year 2024 (January 1, 2024–December 31, 2024). Some measures also require states to review utilization or enrollment prior to this period to identify the measure eligible population. For example, the IET-HH measure instructs states to identify enrollees with SUD episode start dates that started November 15, 2023 through November 14, 2024 (the first date range). However, states will also need to review an enrollee's SUD diagnosis and medication history for 194 days prior to the SUD episode date to confirm that the patient had no claims/encounters with a diagnosis of SUD (the second date range). States that followed the 2025 Health Home Core Set specifications (that is, calculated the denominator using SUD episode start dates from November 2023 through November 2024) should select "Yes, our state adhered to Core Set specifications in defining the measurement period for calculating this measure." States that used a different date range, should answer "No" to this question and provide the Start Date and End Date they used to identify the Denominator (based on the first date range and not the look-back period). States should note variations from any measurement period (numerator, denominator, continuous enrollment) in the "Variations from Measurement Specifications" section.

^c Blood pressure reading must occur on or after the date of the second diagnosis of hypertension.

^d No more than one gap in enrollment of up to 45 days during the continuous enrollment period.

^e No more than one gap in enrollment of up to 45 days during each year of the continuous enrollment period.

^f Applies to all rates: Alcohol use disorder, Opioid use disorder, Other substance use disorder, and Total.

^g No more than one gap in enrollment of up to 45 days during the 365 days prior to the index discharge date and no gap during the 30 days following the index discharge date.
